

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

The Eucharists of Easter Sunday are the principal acts of worship in the Christian year, and all Sunday Eucharists throughout the year derive from them, since every act of Communion is a celebration of, and participation in, Christ's risen presence. The readings and sermon proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, risen from the dead. We rejoice in the sacramental presence of the risen Lord as he comes among us in the broken bread and wine outpoured—renewing and empowering us for service in his world. All who desire to receive Holy Communion are invited to do so at this service.

“He is not here - he is risen” is what the dazzling angels say to the women. That is what God says to us this Easter Sunday. He is not here. It is time to leave the tombs in which we live for death has no power over us. The stone which has been rolled away is a door to new life which is opening for us. The light now streams in; we are now to see the world in a new light. He is not here, he is risen. God became like us, lived a human life, did the things we do, suffered death like us, and rose again. Where he has gone, we shall follow.

This Easter is particularly special for Nicholas, Eadie and Halley our baptisands - our love and prayers are with you as you begin your journey of faith!

I wish you, and all you love and care for, a joyous and blessed Easter. May the risen Christ transform your lives and relationships and give you peace.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Brightness of God's glory, whom death could not conquer nor the tomb imprison: as you have shared our frailty in human flesh, help us to share your immortality in the Spirit; let no shadow of the grave terrify us, and no fear of darkness turn our hearts from you. Reveal yourself to us this day and all our days, as the First and the Last, the Living One, our immortal Saviour and Lord.

COLLECT OF THE WEEK

Lord of all life and power, who, through the mighty resurrection of your Son, overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we,
being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise, honour and thanksgiving, now and for all eternity.

NEWS

VISITING PREACHER

A huge thank you to Rev'd Dr Sue Boorer, all the way from Perth WA who has joined us for Holy Week and Easter. Sue is preaching the sacred Triduum (three days) of Maundy Thursday 7pm, Good Friday 2pm and Easter Sunday 5am. We are blessed by her presence, wisdom and insight!

JUMBLE SALE

Our April Jumble sale will be on Wednesday 3rd April between 9am and Midday - thank you to all those who are busily preparing. Please do spread the word as ever, and note the extended hours!

CHILDRENS EASTER CELEBRATION

Do spread the word to families and friends - Holy Saturday (30th March) at 3pm sees our Easter Egg hunt and other Easter activities, fun for all the family!

CHILDRENS MINISTRY DONATIONS

Thank you to all those who have so far responded so generously for the funding of this position. If you or anyone you know might be interested in applying, please do let us know - a job description is now being circulated.

PANTRY CHALLENGE

This week's challenge is packets of pre-packaged sugar of which they are short. The Pantry is really grateful for our support. Don't forget that there is a bin outside the office if it is easier to bring your donation on another day.

EMAIL NEWSLETTERS

Please let us know if you are not in receipt of the newsletters by email – this is a much more efficient way of keeping you up to date with all that's going on, and Fr Patrick sends out a weekly email with more news.
